Dear Seniors,

Dare to dream!! Have faith in those dreams and the courage to pursue them. No one knows your potential... not even you. No dream is ever realized if it is not pursued. Remember, "If your mind can conceive it, and your heart believes, then you can achieve it!"

Good Luck and God Bless You!!!

I am happy that after 12 years of pure torture, it has been in God's perfect will to allow me to graduate. For 4 years I worked (though sometimes not as hard as I should have) and I struggled along side my friends, and I am somewhat sad to see it end. I would like to give a shoutout to my boys: Al, Khaalis, RJ, & Rick.

REMINISCE

From the beginning, when we were
 Fresh fish in a very big sea,
 Destined to succeed in the world
 With our brains as our key,
 To open many doors, to opportunity
 And to wealth,
 Never putting others' feelings
 Before those of one's self.
 How we have grown up to the utmost
 Stage of maturity.
 How we mentor other pupils portraying
 our seniority.
 How we laughed, and we joked, and we
 Played, and we clowned.
 How we belittled and calumniated,
 And we smiled, and we frowned.
 When a beef was provoked, we set it
 Off like Jada.
 And who crept incognito - to sneak
 On the elevator?
 So many jubilant moments; laughs,
 And cries,
 So easy to say hello, but so hard to Say good-bye.
 To the future doctors, and lawyers,
 And cops - with some reverends,
 Much love to all in the Class of 97
